

NSW Property licence reforms and your training

NSW property industry licensing is changing which means the training currently offered and being completed will be phased out. Changes will commence as early as 23rd March 2020.

What does this mean if you are currently studying?

What you need to do depends on the course you are undertaking. Information is detailed here and if you have any doubts you can contact us for clarification.

Certificate of Registration training

NSW Fair Trading have stated that the new training requirement will be required for applications for an Assistant Agents from 23rd March 2020.

You can manage this change by completing this course and making an application to NSW Fair Trading prior to 23rd March 2020. You should be mindful of the time it will take for us to assess your assignments and process your certificate on course completion. We recommend submission of your last assignment no later than 3rd March 2020.

Please refer to our NSW Reforms fact sheet for a better understanding of the requirements.

NSW Licence Training

NSW Fair Trading have stated that the new training requirement will be introduced for applications for Agents from 23rd March 2020. However, you can continue to study this course and make application beyond 23rd March 20 if you have completed at least on unit of this course. We will endeavour to issue Statements of Attainment to all currently studying students but encourage you to request a Statement of Attainment of completed units via email to be sure. NSWreforms@realestatetraining.com.au

You should be aware that application after the 23rd March 2020 will require applicants to demonstrate they have operated as an Assistant Agent for 1 year prior to licence application.

You can manage this change by completing this course and making an application to NSW Fair Trading prior to 23rd March 2020 if possible.

If you feel course completion is not possible please check your course status by clicking "My Grades" to see which units you have completed and contact us for guidance.

Should you opt to complete the course you should be mindful of the time it will take for us to assess your assignments and process your qualification on course completion. We recommend submission of your last assignment no later than 3rd March 2020.

If you have any questions or require assistance to complete your training please contact us by email, chat or telephone 02 9987 2322, we are always happy to help.
